Democrats to Pick Nat'l Delegate

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus expects the Democratic State Committee to name both a national committeeman and a state chairman if Tom Harper of Fort Smith is selected as the committeeman at a Jan. 10 meeting.

Harper, the present state chairman, once had Faubus support for the committee post but the governor said last week he would not agree to Harper's being both committeeman and state chairman.

Harper said Tuesday he would not want to give up the chairmanship until he is officially confirmed as a member of the national committee and that this confirmation can come only from the national committee itself.

The state committee action, Harper said, would amount only to a nomination.

Faubus said today he does not have a man in mind for the chairmanship if Harper elects to take the committee post and he declined to speculate on how the various problems about the election-nomination would be resolved.

Union Vote at Hope Plant Friday

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — About 56 employees in the production, maintenance and machine shop divisions of Standard Generator Service Co. of Hope will vote Friday on whether to be represented by the United Auto Workers union.

Thomas R. Stover, National Labor Relations Board field examiner, will conduct the election. The firm, also known as Electronic Enterprises, rebuilds starters and generators.

Woman, Son Plan Walk of 700 Miles

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Mrs. Mabel McMillan and her 17-year-old son Roger set out Monday to walk 700 miles to San Antonio, Tex., where they hope Roger can get work on a ranch.

They're walking because they like it, and because they like to meet people and see the country.

Two years ago they walked 650 miles to Northern Florida for the winter, then walked back to Paul's Switch near Jonesboro where Roger worked on a farm in the summer and picked cotton in the fall.

"The harvest in the cotton country is being taken over by machines," the strapping 6-foot youngster said. "I hope there will be a place for me on a ranch."

With them is Rock, a Shetland pony which pulls a cart in which they carry their possessions and Roger's shiny new bicycle.

Tiny, a dog which made the Florida trip, was killed by a train a few weeks ago at Paul's Switch.

While in Arkansas the McMillans live in a farm tenant house at Paul's Switch, a small farming community. They are headed for Pleasanton, Tex., near San Antonio, where Mrs. McMillan's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bingham, own a ranch.

Roger said he did not know whether he would work on that ranch or another.

The McMillans will camp out at night. They estimate the trip will take two months.

"We like it," Mrs. McMillan, 57, said. "We meet a lot of people this way. It's not like speeding through the country in a car. They camped near a state highway at Cash, Ark., Monday night and set off again this morning."

Arkla Plans $14 Million Expansion

WASHINGTON (AP)—Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. asked the Federal Power Commission Tuesday for permission to build $14 million worth of new facilities in the Arkoma Basin pipeline system.

W. R. Stephens, president, said gas reserves in the area have increased from 420 billion cubic feet when the system was planned, to two trillion cubic feet today.

Construction of Arkla's $15 million Arkoma pipeline system is now being completed.

The application said Arkla would build gas gathering lines, compressor stations and a large diameter transmission line in the basin, which includes eastern Oklahoma and western Arkansas.

Construction of gathering lines would be between Centrahoma, Okla., and Paris, Ark.; Driggs, Ark., and Jane, Mo. The addition of 4,000 horsepower to the new Dunn compressor station near Driggs would bring total horsepower to 5,500 and total investment in the station to more than $2 million.

Farm Prices Same as Last Month

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The mid-November index of prices received by farmers was the same as last month, the Crop Reporting Service said today, but it was four points above mid-November a year ago.

The index is based on an average of prices received during the 1910-1914 period.

Prices received for beef cattle declined 40 cents per hundredweight and for calves 70 cents, the service said. Prices received for chickens and eggs were above the preceding month, but less than a year ago. Soybean prices were the highest for November since 1951.

Cotton lint prices were down slightly from mid-October, but above a year ago.

GOP Opposition Mounts to Cotton Subsidy Bill and Amendments Are Expected

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans were expected to bombard a cotton subsidy bill with amendments today before it reaches a vote in the House.

Opposition to the bill by the GOP solidified Tuesday as the House closed its first day of debate on the proposal.

Rep. Albert H. Quie, R-Minn., described the bill as the worst to come out of the Agriculture Committee.

But Rep. Harold Cooley, D-N.C., chairman of the committee, argued that lower cotton prices to the textile industry would mean lower prices to the consumer for cotton goods and that the saving would be more than 500 million a year.

Cooley's argument was based on what Republicans called a simple subsidy: One for the farmer who grows cotton—the high price support; one for the exporter—so he can sell at the world price; and finally one for the textile mills, contained in the current cotton bill.

The bill is aimed at allowing American textile manufacturers to buy U.S. cotton at the same price at which it is available to foreign mills.

An 8½ cent per pound government subsidy lets foreign mills buy U.S. cotton at the world price of 24 cents a pound, while U.S. mills must buy U.S. cotton at the high support price of 32½ cents per pound. The cotton bill would subsidize the 8½-cent difference.

Wants Unity of Christians Locally

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Staff Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A prominent West Coast Lutheran leader called today for Christian unity on the local level.

The plea by the Rev. Carl W. Segerhammar came amidst a background theme of unity and equality at the triennial general assembly of the National Council of Churches.

The Rev. Segerhammar, president of the Pacific Southwest Synod of the Lutheran Church in America, said, however, "difficulties are far greater than the person's desire to do this."

Elaborating in an interview on an address on local ecumenicity prepared for a business session of the assembly, the Rev. Segerhammar offered this example as one of the difficulties:

"Who is going to give the authority for our Roman Catholic friends to speak. After all, I don't speak for the Lutheran Church."

Meanwhile, the Rev. Dr. Franklin Clark Fry, president of the Lutheran Church in America, said in another interview that "the basic need for Christian unity is for all of us to unite in our worship of God and our acceptance of His grace in Jesus Christ."

The Rev. Segerhammar said, "There are certain church bodies who feel they have the only true insight and no one else has."

"By sitting down and talking together," he continued, "it could help eliminate fears. I think nothing happens in the world permanently until it has been worked out at the local level and accepted at the local level."

In his address, the Rev. Segerhammar said local clergymen do not often have an opportunity to attend national or international ecumenical gatherings. In view of this, he suggested local study groups so that ministers and laymen can meet for ecumenical discussion and dialogue.

Mrs. Flossie Richards, aged 69, lifelong resident of Hempstead, died in a local hospital Tuesday. She was a member of Centerville Methodist Church.

Survivors include her husband, Carl, two sons, Carl E. of Texarkana and Wilburn Richards of Ft. Dorado; a sister, Mrs. Ora Richards of Jena, La., and a brother, Roy, Powell of Texarkana.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Herndon-Cornelius Chapel by the Rev. Wesley Thompson. Burial was in Ayers Cemetery.

Vaccination Case Delayed by Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court has extended the time for filing an appeal in a case in which a father stands to lose custody of his children because he will not have them vaccinated against smallpox.

Judge Wesley Howard of the Polk Chancery Court ordered the state Welfare Department to take custody of the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Cude of near Mena.

Cude's attorneys appeared before the Supreme Court Oct. 24 and got the custody order stayed. The Supreme Court at that time allowed 45 days for completion of lower court proceedings and filing of the appeal.

The attorney, Nabors Shaw, of Mena, asked the Supreme Court Monday for additional time. He said he could not prepare the appeal by the Dec. 9 deadline. The court agreed today to give Shaw until Dec. 18 to file his record and until Jan. 17 to file a brief in the case.

The children are Wayne, 12, Delia, 11, and Linda, 8. The argument centers around the fact that school authorities will not permit the children to attend school without the vaccination.

Man Attacks Family, Then Ends Life

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — A 40-year-old Negro attacked his 48-year-old wife and two children with an ax early today, then shot himself with a .22 caliber pistol, Sheriff O. E. Bishop said.

Bishop said the Negro, Fred Andrews, was in critical condition in an El Dorado hospital with a chest wound. His wife, Willie Mae, and son, Willie Albert, 12, were in serious condition.

Bishop said Andrews' also attacked his son, Fred Eugene, 14, but the youth took the ax away from him.

The sheriff said Fred Eugene told him the attack came while the family was asleep. Andrews was found in a cane field near the family's frame home at Urbana, 14 miles east of El Dorado, shortly after Fred Eugene notified authorities of the attack, Bishop said.

Andrews had fled when the son took the ax away, he added. Bishop said Andrews admitted shooting himself, but had no comment on the attack with the ax.

Pared Budget Still to Be a New Record

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson sets his sights today on a federal budget pared to "the lowest possible level," but has conceded the spending blueprint he sends Congress next month may reach a record $100 billion or more.

The economy, plus civil rights and national unity — the three keynotes of the new administration — were on the White House agenda today.

To discuss the health of the economy—and also to make an appeal for support—the President summoned representatives of labor and big business to the White House.

Meetings were scheduled for late afternoon with members of the AFL-CIO Executive Committee and representatives of the Business Advisory Council.

Johnson also planned to talk with James Farmer, director of the Congress of Racial Equality, and to attend a ceremony honoring Secret Service agent James Youngblood.

Youngblood, who shielded Johnson with his body after the shots rang out that killed John F. Kennedy, will be cited for bravery.

Pressing his economy drive, Johnson conferred again Tuesday with Budget Director Kermit Gordon and his deputy, Elmer Staats.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said the Budget Bureau is launching "an agency by agency, department by department examination of the budget."

Salinger said Johnson will hear the appeals of any federal department heads who protest they are not getting enough money in the new budget, which will cover the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Kennedy had sliced the budget from requests submitted by federal agencies, Salinger said, and "President Johnson is attempting to cut that budget further."

"The attempt is to arrive at a budget between $98 billion and $103 billion," Salinger said.

While trying to reduce the gap between spending and revenue, Johnson was also setting his administration's tone in the matter of government regulation of business and industry.

The President called in the chairmen of the Federal Communications Commission, Interstate Commerce Commission,

2 Legislators Resign From Board Posts

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three members of the legislature who were told by the Supreme Court Monday that they could not serve on state boards and commissions resigned today.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus announced the resignations of Sen. Olen Hendrix of Prescott from the State Hospital Board and Rep. E. L. Mosley of Camden from the Southern State College Board.

Faubus said the resignation of Rep. Loid Sadler of Conway County from the Pardons and Parole Board was being prepared for his signature.

Sadler presided over his last board meeting today, Faubus said. Hendrix was chairman of the hospital board.

Faubus said at a news conference "I don't think they should wait when something is as clear as this is." The court ruled Monday that legislators could not legally serve on state boards and commissions.

Dr. Imon E. Bruce, president of Southern State College in Magnolia, said the college regrets losing Mosley from its board.

"But we regret even more the implication by those who brought the suit that he might have benefited in any way financially by his years on the board," Bruce said.

"It is a matter of record that in his eight years on our board Mr. Mosley accepted no reimbursement of any kind for his expenses while attending board meetings or other college functions and he has never had any personal financial interest in the college in any way," Bruce said.

Atty.-Gen. Returns to Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy returned today to the job his assassinated brother gave him and President Johnson asked him to keep.

The 39-year-old attorney general went to his Justice Department office shortly before 10 a.m. to resume his duties as the nation's chief law enforcement officer.

He has been resting with his wife and friends in Florida since the days following the slaying of President John F. Kennedy Nov. 22.

The attorney general continues to be looked on by thousands of American Negroes as a leading champion of equal rights. And President Johnson is expected to rely heavily on him in carrying forward the civil rights program inherited from the dead President, brother of the attorney general.

His associates predict that Kennedy will stay on the job through at least the near future to see such projects progress.

Boat Shaped M2 Makes Test Flight

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—Air Force Col. Charles Yeager, first man to break the sound barrier, piloted a rock-like "Flying Bath-tub" to earth, then announced, "She handles great."

Yeager made his first flight Tuesday in the experimental M2, a boat-shaped re-entry vehicle. At flight's end Yeager predicted the craft may become the "space chute" of the future.

The M2 looks like a bullet cut in half with the pilot canopy on the top side. It was developed by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration as a vehicle to ferry men or equipment back to earth from space stations.

Yeager, 42, was towed to an altitude of 9,000 feet at the end of a cable, then cut loose and allowed to drift to earth at a rate of descent of 4,000 feet.

The wingless M2, with its round-bottomed hull, provided air resistance to keep it from falling like a rock. A few feet above ground, Yeager tilted the M2's nose in a flare-out to reduce his speed to 80 mph. Small tail surfaces on either side gave extra stability and directional control.

It also will be the longest trip ever made by a Pope.

Wants Steady Income for State Police

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Rep. Raymond Mays of Cleveland County asked the Legislative Council today to study the possibility of giving the State Police a stabilized source of revenue so the agency can step up its activities against crime and traffic offenders.

Mays suggested that the State Police Department perhaps should be financed from general revenues and that enough money should be provided to give the agency any additional personnel it might need.

Mays proposal to the council said the state and national crime rate and the highway death and injury rate are increasing and the State Police have been handicapped because of inadequate financing.

He noted a recent financial crisis which led first to a cut in State Police services and later to borrowing by the agency so it could stay in the black for the year.

The State Police Department now is financed almost entirely by revenues from the sale of drivers' licenses and officials have said for several years that this source does not provide enough income.

There has been some talk in capital circles of giving the State Police some funds from general revenues because it is felt that drivers should not pay all costs of an agency which in fields other than traffic enforcement.

The council is expected to undertake the study and submit its findings to the 1965 General Assembly.

Book Called Language of the Flowers

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP)—You love the girl? Then send her a rose.

You're sick of the guy? Then send him a bouquet of Michaelmas daisies.

Want her to marry you? Send her sprigs of ivy.

Those and dozens of other sentiments and declarations—which can be expressed by flowers—are the subject of a book published here.

It's called "The Language of Flowers."

Explaining it, the publishers said: "To express gratitude or affection by the gift of flowers is common enough, but nowadays few people make use of the opportunities provided by this pleasant custom to express other and more specific sentiments."

"For instance, how nice and delightfully simple, to be able to express one's constancy with a bunch of bluebells, or to declare war with a sprig of wild tansy," they said.

The book, with illustrations, has 88 pages. The author is a Mrs. L. Harris.

It has two easy indexes. One explains what the various flowers, fruits and plants mean. The other explains numerous sentiments—and what to send to express them.

Here are a few: Admiration—amethyst. Ardor—the cuckoo plant. Beware—oleander. Coldheartedness—lettuce. Dangerous pleasures—tuberose.

Disgust—frog ophrys. Falsehood—yellow lilly. Fascination—fern. Hopeless love—yellow tulip.

There are three ways to express horror—by sending mandrakes, dragonswort, snakes-foot.

If you want to say "I'm worthy of you" you send a white rose.

Should you want to say "My best days are past" send colchicum or meadow saffron. Should you want to say that someone's absolutely perfect—the pineapple is the answer.

Petition Poses Threat to Civil Rights Measure

By JOHN BECKLER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—A plan by House leaders to resort to a petition in an effort to pry the civil rights bill out of the Rules Committee is threatening the bill's shaky bipartisan backing.

Most Republican members oppose on principle the idea of bypassing committees by getting a majority of the House members to sign a petition, and have little sympathy with the drive getting under way to move the civil rights bill to the floor in such a manner.

Meanwhile, civil rights leaders gather today in what was described as "an extraordinary session" to discuss means of implementing President Johnson's appeal for quick action on civil rights legislation.

The group—including Roy Wilkins of the NAACP and Dr. Martin Luther King—is expected to represent more than 70 organizations and plans to hold a closed meeting before visiting President Kennedy's grave in Arlington National Cemetery.

To speed up House action on the bill, Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., said Tuesday plans are going ahead to have a discharge petition filed Monday. Democratic leaders are hoping to have a large number of Democrats sign up at once.

They would like to get as many as 150 signatures by Tuesday, in which case they feel Republicans would be under heavy public pressure to supply the rest of the names needed to reach 218—a majority.

Such a strategy is almost certain to produce resentment among Republicans who support the civil rights bill, but who have never signed a discharge petition and never plan to.

They contend that Republicans have done enough to help get a civil rights bill to make them immune from such pressures.

The bill now in the Rules Committee was worked out largely by the Justice Department and key GOP members of the House Judiciary Committee as a compromise to break a committee deadlock.

The original report contains stinging criticism of the bill by Southern Democrats, and seven Republicans took it upon themselves to provide a rebuttal.

The Republicans called the bill the most significant legislation to come before Congress "in our lifetime," and wrote a strong endorsement of each of its 10 provisions.

No Opinion on Ruling Sought

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Comptroller L. A. Mashburn said Tuesday he does not plan to seek a legal opinion as to the scope of a state Supreme Court decision Monday barring legislators from serving on state boards.

Mashburn said he believes resignations by legislators on state boards are imminent and should eliminate any doubt as to the validity of warrants issued by the boards.

Sen. E. L. Mosley of Camden said he is forwarding his resignation as a member of the Southern State College Board to Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

Rep. Loid Sadler of Conway County, chairman of the state Pardons and Parole Board, was expected to make a statement at the board's meeting today.

Other lawmakers also are involved, but only Mosley and Sadler named parties to the suit leading to the high court decision.

State Auditor Jimmie Jones is reviewing the decision to determine a course of action regarding the other legislators who are members of study commissions and advisory groups.

Both Pleased With That Perfect Trade

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN DIEGO (AP) — "The perfect trade."

This is what baseball observers called the seven-player swap that sent Milwaukee catcher Del Crandall and pitchers Bob Hendley and Bob Shaw to the San Francisco Giants for star outfielder Felipe Alou, catcher, Ed Bailey, pitcher Billy Hoelt and a fourth player to be named later.

The transaction completed Tuesday night was the second major trade made at the winter baseball meetings, which moves from the present minor league headquarters here to Los Angeles Thursday for the major league sessions.

Giants and Braves officials expressed complete satisfaction with the trade, which they claimed filled in all the spots.

The rival managers were no less enthusiastic.

"We've got a more versatile club than any time since I've been manager," said the Braves' Bobby Bragan. "This really gives us some punch. We picked up 150 RBIs and 41 home runs. Now I think we've got the best 1-2 catcher combination in baseball with Joe Torre and Bailey."

"We gave up a good ball player."

Alou was the big man in the deal. The 28-year-old right-handed hitting slugger batted .281 with 20 home runs and 82 runs batted in last season. He will play center field for the Braves, flanked by Henry Aaron in right and either Lee Maye or Eddie Mathews in left.

Bailey, a 32-year-old left-handed hitting All-Star catcher, had 21 homers and 68 RBIs on a .263 batting average.

Hoelt, a 31-year-old southpaw, nursed a sore shoulder all last season and pitched only 24 innings.

Hendley, 24, had a 9-9 record with a 3.94 earned run average. He hurled three shutouts and has much promise.

Shaw, 30-year-old right-handed starter turned reliever last season, finished with a 7-11 record, but posted a 2.66 ERA in 48 games, striking out nearly twice as many as he walked.

Crandall, 33, batted .201 in 88 games. He is a veteran of 14 years in the National League, Prince with five years as an All-Star.

Johnson Had Hand in Civil Rights Bill

By RELMAN MORIN
Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The towering domestic problem in the United States today, and a tricky political issue in the battle for the presidency next year, is the question of full equality for the Negro.

President Johnson is a Southerner.

But speaking last Memorial Day on the site of the Battle of Gettysburg Johnson said:

"Until justice is blind to color, until education is unaware of race, until opportunity is unconcerned with the color of men's skins, emancipation will be a proclamation but not a fact."

Johnson helped guide some civil rights legislation through the Senate in 1957 and 1960.

As a political realist, he knows his position on civil rights can cost him votes in the likely event that he is the Democratic nominee in 1964. In Texas, only a few hours before President Kennedy was assassinated, Johnson said, "the civil rights issue is going to hurt us."

It may be a factor in parts of the North too. Some Northern politicians call civil rights and "iceberg issue"—meaning there is more hidden than visible opposition to Kennedy administration proposals in this field.

Where does Johnson stand on other issues?

Cuba — "We shall not be content until the last of the Soviet forces are withdrawn from foreign soil."

Foreign aid — "No nation can long enjoy affluence when all the other nations are impoverished."

Defense — "We cannot be done with our dangers or even our duties by next weekend or next year. We are in for a long pull and it is our duty to begin pulling."

Communist China — "America stands firm with her Chinese (Nationalist) allies and we shall continue to do so until freedom is secured."

Disarmament — "We now face the prospect of destroying ourselves. . . I am calling for an open curtain for full discussion of the immediate, urgent problems facing our people. We should insist on the right to state our case on disarmament in detail to the Soviet people." (He said this in 1957, before the agreement to ban nuclear testing.)

Latin America — "We must revitalize our diplomatic corps with ambassadors who know and understand our neighbors and their language and have qualifications other than contributing to campaign chests."

"We must offer to the people of Latin America the very best technical know-how which will help them to develop their skills and to make and sell their products."

Johnson's voting record shows:

Labor — In 1947, he voted to override President Truman's veto of the Taft-Hartley Labor Relations Act. In 1952, he voted to request the President to invoke the injunction provisions of the Taft-Hartley act in the steel strike. In other votes, he opposed requiring unions to elect their officers by secret ballot every four years and requiring a majority vote by secret ballot before a union could call a strike.

Education — In 1949, he voted for a $300 million federal aid

Vote Still Close for O'Kean Mayor

POCAHONTAS, Ark. (AP) — Albert Johnson defeated Vernie Judd 40-37 in a special election Tuesday to pick a mayor of O'Kean in Randolph County.

The two candidates tied 32-32 in the Nov. 5 election. Gov. Orval E. Faubus set the special election.

O'Kean, 20 miles southeast of Pocahontas, has a population of 137.

Federal Power Commission, Securities and Exchange Commission, and a dozen other regulatory agencies. He told them he will continue "the battle against substitution of government's interest for the public interest."

"We are challenged to elevate our sights, to measure our performance by quality rather than quantity, to concern ourselves with new areas of cooperation before we concern ourselves with new areas of control, to take pride in how much we do rather than how much there is to do," said Johnson.

to education bill and against an amendment to restrict aid to public schools. In 1960, he voted to provide $917 million a year for two years for school construction and teachers' salaries.

Taxes — In 1949, Johnson voted against the tax reduction bill passed in the Republican-controlled Congress over President Truman's veto. He had supported a move to send the bill back to committee with instructions to raise personal exemptions to $700 and increase corporate taxes. In 1951, he voted against a tax bill amendment to provide for a withholding tax on dividends.

Welfare — He voted for area redevelopment legislation, disability benefits under Social Security, extending Social Security coverage, increased grants for public assistance, establishing a youth conservation corps, larger appropriations for federal research, slum clearance and low rent housing legislation.

31,000 Soldiers Brought Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has brought home about 31,000 soldiers who were sent to strengthen the Army in West Germany during the Berlin crisis two years ago, it was learned today.

This represents about 75 per cent of the 41,000 troops, mostly rear echelon elements shipped overseas during late 1961 when the Russians were threatening to try to push the allies out of West Berlin.

The remaining 10,000 reinforcements probably will stay with the U.S. 7th Army for some time.

This places the 7th Army's current strength at about 242,000 men whose fighting power is concentrated in five divisions and a number of miscellaneous combat units adding up to a sixth division.

SHE'S TRULY A SILENT PARTNER

By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: I have been helping my husband run his business ever since our marriage 18 years ago. Many of the decisions and much of the work fall on my shoulders but he will not permit my legal name to appear on the firm's papers, his license, stocks, safe deposit box or any other single thing he owns.

It would appear that his only interest in me is sex. I have borne him four children, been a good homemaker as well as business partner and lived up to my end of the marriage contract generally.

Every time he falls sick (he has suffered three heart attacks), I take complete charge of the business. His parents thought me good for it and, looking back, I believe they encouraged our marriage for this reason.

Because of his heart condition and a week with her family and friends.

Liberty Hill HD Club Meets

The Liberty Hill Home Demonstration Club met Monday night for the Christmas meeting in the home of Mrs. E. H. Byers.

Seven members present and one visitor, Sandra May, answered the roll call. The devotion was given by Mrs. Byers. Mrs. Huckabee told about the trip to Little Rock to the State meeting. The gifts were opened. Refreshments were served. The January meeting will be with Mrs. Mirl Middlebrooks.

Lt. and Mrs. John H. Barr, Bergstorm AFB, Tex., spent the recent holidays here with Mrs. R. H. Barr and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bayless.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Combs, Kingsport, Tenn., visited Mrs. Harry Shiver Monday en route to various points in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Whitworth went to Shreveport Saturday for a dinner for Shreveport Times correspondents.

Mrs. Dewey Camp has returned from a visit in Crossett with Miss Kay Camp and in Magnolia with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Truax and family.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Oglesby of Irving, Tex., visited Mrs. C. Cook and other relatives.

Over the past weekend Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cook of Little Rock visited friends and relatives in Hope.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Walker of Benton are the parents of a 6 lb., 10 oz. daughter, born November 20. She has been named Lisa Ellen. Grandparents, all of Hope, are Mrs. Robert Walker and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Shope.

tion, I am doubly apprehensive. Last month I became fed up with the situation and demanded that he so to speak, "do right by me." After all, my future, as well as my children's, should be of some concern to him. He told me he didn't give a hoot about himself, us or anybody else. What can I do? — Stymied

Dear Stymied: If your husband didn't have a heart condition I'd say tell him off. But aside from the danger of bringing on a serious attack there is another factor to consider—sick people aren't normal and shouldn't be judged by accepted standards. Take that into consideration and use your feminine wits.

Try the psychological approach. See your in-laws. Since they evidently sold him on you in the first place, let them do the job of persuading him to officially recognize you as his partner. From what you say, it is to their interest that the business prosper. Make it plain that you simply will not continue to work for it unless you have your name on the firm's papers and a share in the profits. Tell them if he refuses to accede to their wishes, as well as yours, you will resort to the popular big stick of today and strike.

It's my guess that your in-laws will bring your husband to terms. Giving in to you he would lose face; giving in to them he would be in the happy position of being a dutiful son and magnanimous husband. As added help, you might pass along my leaflet "The Ideal Husband" to the in-laws for study. A stamped, self-addressed envelope will bring it to you.

Dear Helen: I'm crazy about the boy who lives across the street. He's 21, I'm 16. When we're alone he makes me feel wanted but in front of others he is as cool as a cucumber toward me. Now four days have passed without a phone call from him. I don't date anyone else, just sit at the window and watch his comings and goings. This irritates my mother and his but I just can't help caring. Am I wasting my time? — Confused

Dear Confused: Yes! And one thing is for sure: your boy friend will be gone for good if you continue spying on him. To admit weakly you can't help caring is silly. Pick up what's left of your pride and get on with your life which, at this stage, should be school in particular and boys in general.

Thinks Probe Will Help Jack Ruby

By FINIS MOTHERSHEAD

Associated Press Staff Writer

DALLAS (AP) — A defense lawyer predicts the findings of federal investigators will bolster the case of Jack Ruby, who shot down the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

There are increasing signs, meanwhile, of probable delay in the murder trial of Ruby, tentatively set to start a week from today.

Ruby, 52, owner of a downtown strip tease joint, remained under close guard today in the county jail. He has been held without bond since the televised shooting Nov. 24 of Lee Harvey Oswald, charged with firing the shots which killed Kennedy and a Dallas policeman two days earlier.

"When the government's report of the Oswald case comes out," defense lawyer Tom Howard said Sunday night, "I believe then that public opinion in favor of Ruby will be stronger than ever because it will prove conclusively there was absolutely no connection between Ruby and Oswald."

District Atty. Henry Wade, who has said he will demand

Have fun. Play the field.

Dear Helen: I'm a 13-year-old boy with a very serious problem. The girl I love and want to date steady likes boys with hoody haircuts; the type that get into trouble. For her sake I would even be this kind of boy and act as the rest of the crowd she travels with, but for my parents' sake I know I shouldn't. I really want that girl though I know it's wrong. What do you think I should do? — Undecided

Dear Undecided: Don't let the first stirrings of sex lure you down the wrong path. Take this excessive energy out in sports. Even if the girl were your type, which she obviously isn't, it would be sheer folly to let yourself get too serious.

Read "The Stork Didn't Bring You" or any other informative book on sex for teens. Your local library undoubtedly has a shelf full of them.

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

the death penalty for Ruby, declined to go into this aspect of the case.

Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, mother of the slain suspect, asserted she was sure her son did not kill President Kennedy. In angry tones, she blamed authorities on guard and asked in a Fort Worth interview why Oswald, who sought to renounce U.S. citizenship when he went to Russia in 1959, was not under surveillance.

Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and city police continued to dig for evidence. Official silence cloaked any fresh discoveries. It was indicated they would need considerable time to sift reams of notes left by Oswald, an avowed Marxist.

Howard, a veteran of criminal law trials, all but said he would seek postponement of the Ruby trial on a state charge of murder, set for Dec. 9 in a Dallas U.S. District Court. Earlier the lawyer said he expected the defense to be ready by that date.

"We need considerable time to develop our case," Howard said Sunday night. "I don't see how we could be ready before February."

Every mail delivery brought more donations for the families of Dallas policeman J. D. Tippit, whom Oswald was accused of killing as the officer tried to stop him for questioning, and for Oswald's Russian-born wife and two small daughters.

The Tippit fund was estimated at $65,000 before counting was suspended for the weekend.

Howard reported receipt of about 300 letters and telegrams, including one from a Los Angeles man pledging $500 for the defense of Ruby. He said several applauded the slaying of Oswald and only four were unfavorable in tone.

Hope Salvages Only 1 of 3 at Bradley

By CARTER HARDAGE

Hope Star Sports Writer

The HHS basketball season began last night with a three game card at Bradley. The only game that the locals managed to salvage was the "B" Boys. Both girls teams dropped their matches.

The "B" team captured their just by the rather slim margin of 45-41. After dropping behind in the initial action, they took a commanding 32-22 lead at the Half and kept the margin. Big guns of the night were Johnny Honeycutt, with 14 points, and Bill Reinhardt, 13.

The Lady Cats didn't fare quite so well in their battle, and dropped it 54-39 to a team that boasts three All-Staters. One of them scored 26 points by herself. Shirley Smith racked up 21 for Hope, which is also pretty good, especially for a junior.

The Junior Girls really got clouted to the tune of 45-25 in their event. They were able to hold their own in the waning minutes, but the initial lead Bradley built up was just too much to overcome. Barbara Thompson was high with 14 points.

All in all, Hope did fairly well in their opener, especially if you consider that Bradley had a ump by getting an early start with practice. Local fans can expect to see some fine records this season, and everyone is encouraged to support the basketball program, too.

Outstanding Lineman of Week Picked

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

The best lineman in college football last week turned out to be twins.

In a rare occurrence, Lineman of the Week honors are shared today by a pair of behemoths from the Big Ten Conference—linebacker Dick Butkus of Illinois and tackle Carl Eller of Minnesota.

Both were so outstanding in leading their teams to important Thanksgiving Day victories that it was impossible to award one the edge. So for the first time this season they were selected by The Associated Press to share jointly the mythical laurel wreath that goes to the normally unsung defenceman.

Butkus, 6-foot-3, 234-pound junior center from Chicago, was described as a "One Man Gang" in Illinois' 13-0 triumph over Michigan State at East Lansing that brought the Illini the Big Ten championship and a trip to the Rose Bowl.

Eller, 6-5, 245-pound tackle from Winston-Salem, N.C., proved to be a ton of dynamite in Minnesota's 14-0 triumph over Wisconsin at Minneapolis.

The giant Negro is rated one of the best interior linemen ever to come out of college football. He was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings and immediately signed by that National Football League team.

Tittle and Brown Snap the Records

NEW YORK (AP) — Y. A. Tittle and Jimmy Brown each snapped one of the more coveted records in the National Football League book Sunday, and retained their leads in NFL passing and rushing.

Johnny Unitas of Baltimore made the biggest advance in the statistical tables, released today. He jumped from fourth to second among the passers, on a fine performance against the Washington Redskins.

Old Y. A. threw two touchdown passes as the New York Giants scratched out a comeback victory over the Dallas Cowboys, and set a career record in that department. He now has 197, one more than Bobby Layne threw in a long career at New York, Detroit and Pittsburgh.

Brown ran for 179 yards in the big Cleveland victory over St. Louis and made his season total 1,677, with two games left. He set the old record, 1,527 yards in 1958.

Brown also scored twice to take over the scoring lead with 90 points on 15 touchdowns.

Bobby Joe Conrad of St. Louis remained the leading pass receiver with 60 for 763 yards. Bobby Mitchell of Washington

The 100-Point Per Game Era Is Ushered in

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

No, they haven't lowered the basket, widened the hoop or streamlined the ball, but college basketball's new timing rule may have served the same purpose—ushering in an era of the 100-point game.

Where 100-point games used to be fairly rare, they have become rather common in the first few days of the 1963-64 season. All is as it was before, the teams, the players, the arenas and the equipment. Only the rules have been changed.

The new rule dictates that the clock will stop automatically when the ball goes out-of-bounds. This apparently is adding actual playing time, and providing more time to score. Even against the usual, early-season opposition, witness Tuesday night's proceedings:

Sixth-ranked Arizona State, admittedly strong, rolled up 121 points to 79 for a New Mexico Western team not in the same class, but hardly considered a weak opponent.

Miami of Florida whipped Tampa 101-95. Auburn walloped Howard 102-44 and Oklahoma thumped South Dakota 100-79, with the Sooners setting a school record.

Baylor missed the 100-mark by two points in beating Arlington State 98-74, but ran up its highest point total in history.

And Oklahoma State, Hank Iba's slow-down types for whom 50 is a harvest, defeated Southern Illinois 83-54 for their fifth highest score in history.

For three days of action, 16 major college teams now have hit 100 or more points. West Texas State is tops so far, with 126.

They weren't all like that Tuesday. Tenth-ranked Oregon State defeated Washington State 75-58. Minnesota needed a second half rally to down Iowa State 61-50. Vanderbilt came with a closing rush to subdue SMU 79-60 and Stanford downed Oregon 83-65 as Tom Dose collected 26 points.

Clemson went into double overtime before edging North Carolina 68-64 in an Atlantic Coast Conference game on Mike Bohonak's jump shot with two seconds left. Willie Somerset's 28 points and final two foul shots with 10 seconds left carried Duquesne to an 83-79 decision over St. Francis, Pa. and Seton Hall edged Catholic U. 69-67 in overtime on Richie has the most yardage, 1,140 and Terry Barr of Detroit leads in touchdown passes with 11.

Four Arkansans in Pro Draft

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Football League drafted four Arkansas football players, including three from the University of Arkansas, Monday.

Los Angeles drafted Razorback senior tackle Wesley Bryant of Texarkana. St. Louis drafted junior end Jerry Lamb of Houston, Tex. And Washington drafted Gordon Guest, hard-throwing junior quarterback from Pine Bluff.

San Francisco drafted Bob Brown, tackle for Arkansas AM&N College in Pine Bluff.

Navy Needs 25 for New Scoring Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Navy already has scored more points than any Annapolis team before, but needs 25 points against Army Saturday to take the national scoring title for the first time.

NCAA statistics today show Navy with a 32.6-point average in nine games. Utah State has 31.7 for second, but has finished the season. The Middles need 25 points to stay on top.

Tulsa has broken the record of 176 pass completions set by Stanford in 1959, with the game with Louisville Saturday left to play.

Navy leads in passing accuracy with .655 per cent, better than the .612 record of Washington State in 1958.

Texas Western, with one game left, leads in pass defense. Only 90 passes have been thrown against Texas Western all season.

The total of 315 field goals kicked is already a record, surpassing the 277 of 1961.

Broncs Sign End

DENVER (AP) — The Denver Broncos of the American Football League said Tuesday night they had signed Matt Snorton, 6-foot-4, 245 pound end from Michigan State.

Harding College gave the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference basketball race a jolt just as it got off the ground Tuesday night.

The Bisons started and finished in a full court press and shocked Ouachita College's touted Tigers 90-76 at Searcy.

In other games, State Teachers trimmed Ozarks 67-56 at Clarksville; Arkansas Tech rallied to whip Arkansas College 80-74 at Batesville; and Southern State dropped a 76-71 decision to East Texas Baptist College in Texas.

Sooner Gets Back of the Week Honors

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — A wild man on the football field, but gentle as a lamb in person—that's Oklahoma fullback Jim Grisham, The Associated Press' college football back of the week.

A typical Grisham post-game comment came Saturday after he shattered a school rushing record by gaining 218 yards and halftime, 39-38, after the lead had changed hands several times. Ouachita led in the second half off and on, but Vernon Rogers' jump shot with 15 minutes to play put the Bisons into a lead they did not lose.

Harding went into a stall in the closing minutes, drew fouls and hit the foul shots to pad the lead.

The triumph made the Bisons 1-0 in AIC play and OBC 0-1. Harding is 2-3 on the season, Ouachita is 3-2.

Rogers canned 30 points for Harding and Leon Clements hit 23 for the Tigers.

Bob Ratchford hit 11 of his 15 points early in the second half to bring Tech from behind against the Highlanders. It was the AIC opener for both teams.

Bill Boley put in 23 points for the Wonder Boys and LaVaughan Robertson netted 23 for Arkansas College.

Tom Davis hit 24 points to pace Teachers to an easy victory over Ozarks in the AIC opener for both teams. Joe Bagwell got 17 points for Ozarks.

Wilt Apparently Beats the Bug

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wilt Chamberlain appears to have beaten the bug that threatened to end his string of 359 consecutive National Basketball Association games in New York Tuesday night.

Whether the Knickerbockers, trimmed by Wilt's San Francisco Warriors, 116-108, in the NBA's only action, can recover from their major ailment—losing—is another question.

Chamberlain, bedded by a heavy chest cold prior to the Warriors-Knicks game, came off the sick list to play 41 minutes, score 21 points and haul in 22 rebounds.

In tonight's game San Francisco visits St. Louis, New York journeys to Detroit and Los Angeles is at Baltimore.

Spain ruled what is now Arkansas from 176 to 1803.

scored four touchdowns against arch-rival Oklahoma State in a 34-10 victory.

"There ought to be a yardage column for the blockers," he said modestly. "Our line was really blowing them out of there. All I had to do was stroll through the holes."

The 211-pound junior from Olney, Tex., has scored 16 touchdowns and gained 1,572 yards rushing in his first two varsity years. He's expecting even greater things next year—not for himself, necessarily—but for the team.

"I hope we can win the national championship," he says of the predominantly junior team. "We have a lot of pretty good boys coming back."

Insurance Plan Stands First Test

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The 10-nation health insurance plan for the U.S. dollar, and other principal world currencies, stood its first real test with marked success.

The Federal Reserve Bank of New York and Europe's central banks acted together and quickly to prevent any run on the dollar after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Without the agreed plan to move simultaneously into the foreign exchange markets to prevent such a run, the dollar might have been under pressure.

This is because foreigners hold so many surplus dollars, built up in recent years as a result of big deficits in our balance of payments in international trade and monetary dealings.

These dollars, if dumped on the market for gold or other currencies, could have shaken the value of the dollar — the world's chief monetary reserve as a supplement to gold—and a mainstay of America's healthy economy.

An assassination is the kind of unsettling news on which speculators sometimes feed.

The 10-nation pact to guard against speculative runs followed the October 1960 gold rush which shook the dollar. The price of gold was run up temporarily to $40 an ounce on London's free market, compared to the official U.S. Treasury price of $35.

Rumors of devaluation of the dollar sent speculators rushing to turn in their dollars for gold. The rumors were scotched, first by President Dwight D. Eisenhower and then by President Kennedy.

The monetary insurance pact that subsequently was devised has worked this year to hold the drain of U.S. gold to a minimum although the balance of payments deficit is still running too high for comfort.

The London gold price, $35.07 Friday, went up on the day after the assassination to $35.11, but dropped Monday to $35.00 and held at that rate Tuesday morning.

The dollar itself held steady on foreign exchanges both Saturday and Monday.

The 10-nation pact worked this way:

The Federal Reserve quickly moved into the market to buy dollars, offering large blocks of German marks, British pounds, Dutch guilders, Swiss francs and Canadian dollars.

The Federal Reserve holds such blocks under the 10-nation agreement by which such currencies are swapped to create reserves for any such emergency. Europe's central banks also stepped in immediately after news of Kennedy's death with offers of support for the dollar.

Any flight from the dollar would be met by credits of European national currencies for the Federal Reserve Bank of New York to use if needed.

This left little room for speculators to operate.

Oswald Was Misfit in Every Way

By SID MOODY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

There was little about Lee Harvey Oswald to warn the world of what was coming.

To those few who knew him he was recalled, if at all, as sometimes eccentric but just another face in the crowd.

Some were aware he'd once left his homeland for Russia. Some saw occasional flashes of his seething contempt for the society that had murdered him. A Marine or two recalled Oswald's expertise with a rifle. His wife knew that he'd brought a rifle. Other people knew Oswald worked in a building by which President Kennedy would pass. At least one knew Lee Harvey Oswald had shown up on the job Friday carrying a long package wrapped in brown paper.

But no one knew all of these things.

There was no one in Dallas—or anywhere else—to put all the pieces of Lee Harvey Oswald suddenly into place and cry out in warning: "Assassin!"

And so, police say, Oswald pulled the trigger, striking back at an unsuspecting society that within minutes would know this obscure misfit all too well.

But before it could learn what impelled Oswald to shoot President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, Oswald himself was dead. And Monday, the same day the President was laid to rest before the mourning eyes of the world, Oswald was buried in a wooden box at Fort Worth.

Yet if his secret lies silenced in the grave, much remains to cast light on the rebel with a cause.

Oswald was a poor boy. His father died before Oswald was born on Oct. 18, 1939, in New Orleans. His mother, Marguerite, who had two other sons, tried to make ends meet working in shops. The family moved frequently, living in Fort Worth, New Orleans, North Dakota and New York.

Mrs. Oswald said Lee began working at odd jobs after school at an early age.

In fourth grade at a suburban Fort Worth school, Oswald was remembered by his principal, Mrs. N.M. Merrett, as "kind of smily, a boy with curly hair... very lively."

While he was 13 and 14 his family lived in New York City. His report card had become less promising. General grades: barely passing. Dependability: cooperation and self-control: unsatisfactory.

Back to New Orleans where classmates at Beauregard Junior High remembered Oswald as a loner, always getting into fights. But when he advanced to high school, he scored way above average in vocabulary and reading. And what was this solitary, belligerent boy of 15 reading? Karl Marx.

He said later he became interested in Marxism after reading a pamphlet a lady handed him about Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, executed Communist spies. Later Oswald moved to North Dakota.

"I could see the impoverishment of the masses before my own eyes in my mother," he said years later to a reporter. "I thought the worker's life could be better."

At 17 he enlisted in the Marines.

He impressed his sergeant at Camp Pendleton, Donald Goodwin, with his marksmanship with a rifle. "But," said Goodwin later, "he was such a hot-head I was glad when he was shipped out."

After Oswald was sent to Japan in July 1957, he was court-martialed twice, once for having an unregistered pistol (He lost his PFC stripe for that) and another time for using profanity to a non-com.

After he got back to the States in 1958, Oswald asked to be discharged so he could support his mother. A year later he was put on active reserve status.

A month later — in October 1959 — he was in Moscow.

"I've made up my mind. I'm through," he said and applied for Russian citizenship.

"Capitalism has passed its peak," he told a reporter. "I've seen poor Niggers... and that was a lesson. People hate because they've been told to hate. It's the fashion to hate people in the United States."

The Soviet government wouldn't grant him citizenship but he was allowed to remain as an alien resident. He drifted into factory work in Minsk where he eventually married a Russian Pharmacist, Marina Nicholayevna.

State Economy Still Healthy

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State tax collection figures for November indicate that Arkansas' economic situation still is in a healthy upswing.

Figures released by the state Revenue Department today show the total collections for November increased $401,000 over last November to $16,415,139.

A stronger indicator of economic well being, however, was the figures for sales and income tax, both of which were up significantly.

The sales tax collection increased $184,413 to $5,521,497 and the income tax total was up $268,892 to $4,285,745.

The upward trend has held through the first five months of this fiscal year. Collections for the five months have totaled $77,382,000, compared to $71,850,000 for the same month last year.

KTVF-TV Sale Is Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — The sale of Television Station KTVF-TV at El Dorado, Ark., for $650,000 was approved Tuesday by the Federal Communications Commission.

'Night Show' Was a Real Shocker

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — NBC's "Show of the Week," whose Sunday night dramatic programs too often are rather flabby, Sunday night turned up a taut shocker.

It was called "Ride With Terror," a story about two punks cowering a dozen passengers on a late night subway train.

The hoodlums were first shown as they robbed an elderly man of $8 and then beat him senseless for kicks. Then we followed the train as it picked up passengers, an unattractive lot except for one.

The punks swaggered aboard and began to torture, humiliate and frighten the passengers in turn.

One or two spoke up hesitantly and an elderly man flared out at the young hoodlums briefly. The rest just sat there. Nobody wanted to get involved.

Eventually one of the two soldiers aboard took on the pair, and the grim ride came to a quick, bloody end.

The passengers scurried away, stepping over a drunk who had rolled onto the floor.

One suspects that author Nicholas Baehr was saying something rather basic about people and modern attitudes. It was pretty obvious that if the passengers had gotten together

Wanted Man in Little Rock Area

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The FBI said today that Benton County authorities had received a report that a man resembling one of the FBI's 10 most wanted criminals was in the Benton area within the past week.

Roy K. Moore, special agent in charge of the Little Rock FBI office, said Alfred Oponowicz, 37, who has a long criminal record, was the man reportedly seen leaving Benton Nov. 27 in a white 1961 Pontiac, in the direction of Little Rock.

Oponowicz is wanted for bank burglary in Cleveland, Ohio.

Moore said there was not positive information that the person reported was Oponowicz.

Oponowicz reportedly carries a machine gun and has said he will not be taken alive. He is 5 foot 10 inches tall, weighs 170 pounds, has brown hair and a scar on the left side of his chin.

early, the bullies would never have tried anything.

"The World's Greatest Showman," NBC's appreciation of the late Cecil B. DeMille — started Sunday night with a scene in which Victor Mature as Samson pushed over the great stone pillars. And for the next 90 minutes some of DeMille's stars—including Gloria Swanson, James Stewart, Cornel Wilde and Yul Brynner — talked about the famous director.

The show could have been shortened by at least a half hour, but it was a pleasant program.

Johnson's Daughter Is Guarded

By TOM JOHNSON

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Secret Service agents assigned to protect President Johnson's 19-year-old daughter at the University of Texas may find the duty more rewarding than expected.

A friend of Lynda Bird Johnson's quoted her as saying Monday in her dormitory room with reference to the agent who accompanied her to classes: "He sits in the class and seems very interested. He's learning things too."

Lynda Bird is taking a 19-hour class load of English, Latin, history, government, chemistry and Bible.

A sophomore in the School of Arts and Sciences, Miss Johnson returned to classes Monday with more than 20,000 other students at the university.

She was taken from her dormitory by Secret Service agents Nov. 22 immediately after the President was shot in Dallas. Agents took her to the governor's mansion in Austin for protection. She attended the funeral services in a Washington with her family and returned to Austin Sunday.

Lynda Bird's close friends—Merry Nell Van Fleet, 18, a freshman student from San Antonio—said the Johnsons' eldest daughter had not been appreciably changed by the swift turn of events.

"She's taking it all in stride,"

Voluntary Desegregation

ATLANTA (AP)—The Board of Aldermen adopted Monday a resolution calling for voluntary desegregation of public places.

The resolution, passed 10-4, urges all public and private businesses, agencies, organizations and institutions to give immediate consideration to the removal of racial barriers. It does not have the force of law.

Miss Van Fleet said.

At least three Secret Service agents have been detailed to guard Miss Johnson. She lives with 800 other women students in a university-operated dormitory.

At least one agent is with her wherever she goes in public.

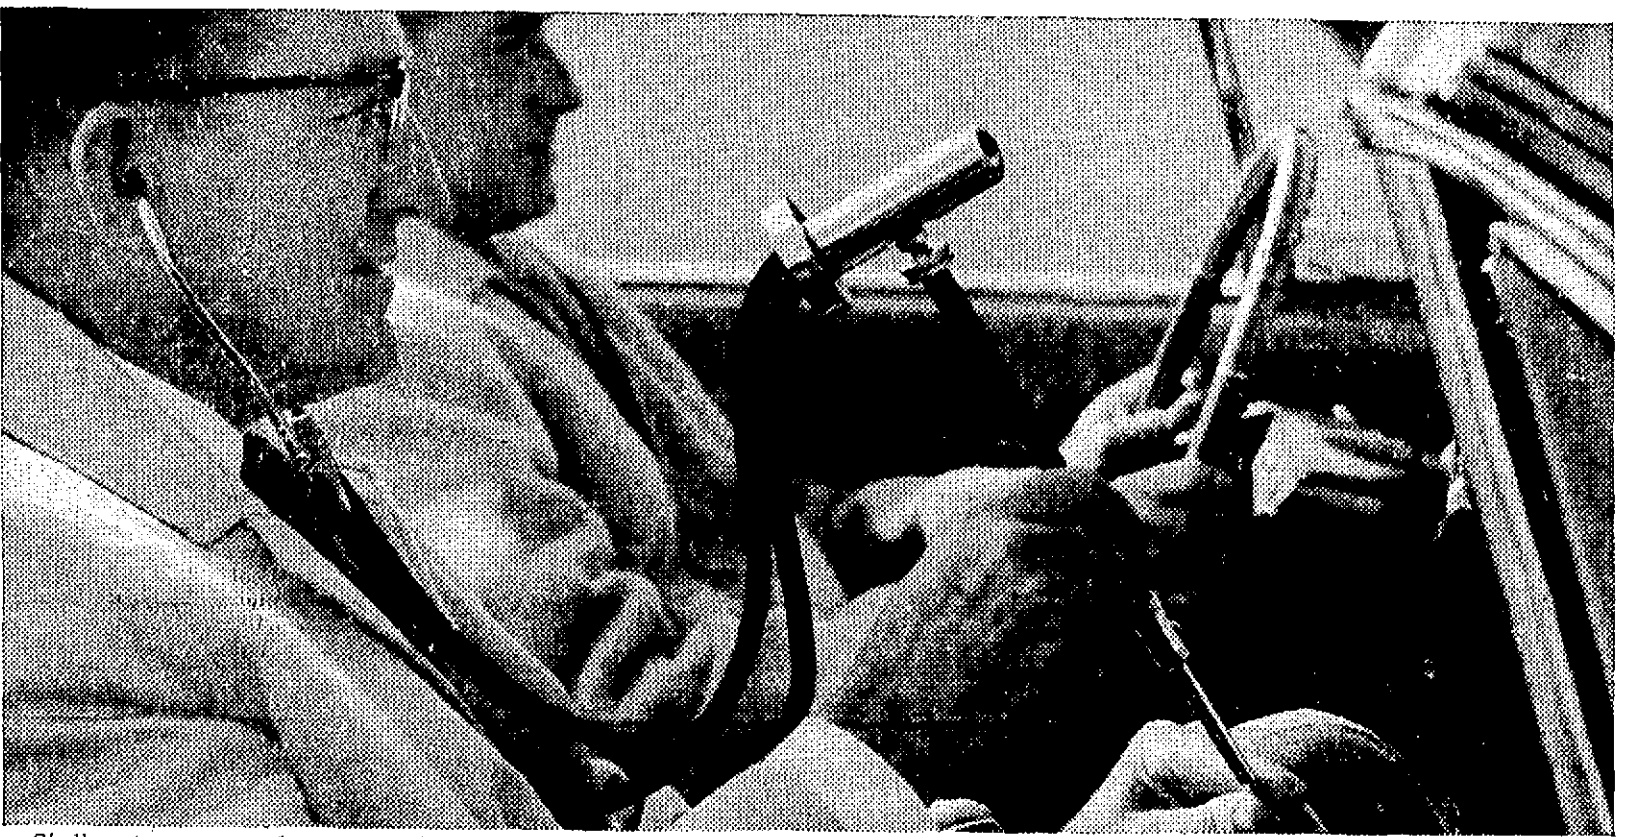

Inside the dormitory, the Secret Service has set up an office in a glass-walled room that commands a full view of the lobby and main entrance to the building. Extensive telephone circuits have been set up in the office.

Despite the tight security, student life goes on as usual at the dorm.

Agents said no interviews with Lynda Bird would be permitted.

Reports from close to the White House have said the President's daughter may transfer late in January at the end of the current semester to a school in Washington. They said such a move would greatly simplify the job of guarding her.

Another daughter, Lucy Baines, 16, attends a private high school in Washington.

Shell engineer uses stethoscope to help detect hard-to-hear knock. Super Shell fights both knock and spark plug misfire to make your car work better.

Want a smooth, quiet engine? Read how three of Super Shell's 9 working ingredients work together to help you get it

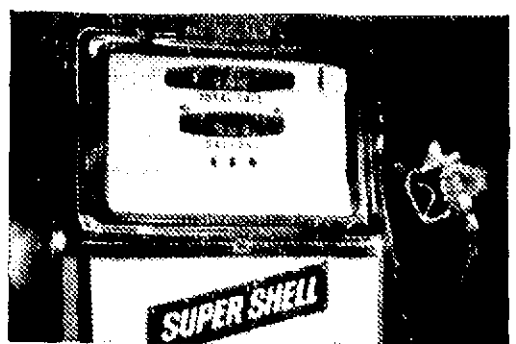

SHELL scientists will tell you that a good gasoline should fight both engine knock and spark plug misfire to give you a quiet, smooth-running engine.

That's why the men who make Super Shell gasoline always include TCP, Anti-knock mix and Alkylate as three of its nine working ingredients.

TCP works to fight spark plug misfire

Spark plug misfire means exactly what it sounds like. The plug misses—doesn't fire properly. Instead of purring smoothly, your engine falters—loses power and wastes gasoline.

Combustion deposits are often to blame. When engine temperatures go up, these deposits can conduct electricity—actually short circuit your spark plugs and take them right out of the act.

For a quiet, smooth-running engine, stop at this clean white Super Shell pump.

Super Shell's TCP works by actually altering the chemical nature of these deposits. Your spark plugs fire the way they should—and you get a smooth-running engine.

Anti-knock mix and Alkylate work to fight two kinds of knock

1. Ordinary knock—the kind most people hear. It sounds sort of like metal tapping against metal.

Super Shell's Anti-knock mix is so powerful that just one teaspoonful per gallon can boost knock resistance dramatically—actually raise the octane rating by a full five numbers for a smooth, quiet engine.

2. High-speed knock—not as well known as ordinary knock. And often hard to hear, because it usually occurs at turnpike speeds.

But even though you may not always hear it, high-speed knock can pound away at pistons and lead to costly damage.

Shell scientists originally pioneered the development of Alkylate to help control knock in aircraft engines.

Today, Alkylate helps Super Shell gasoline give you a quiet, smooth-running engine at high speeds.

Super Shell has 9 working ingredients to make your car work better

Smooth, quiet performance is just one of the benefits you get from Super Shell. And the ingredients you've read about are just three of Super Shell's 9 working ingredients. Here are the others—and what they do to help your car work better.

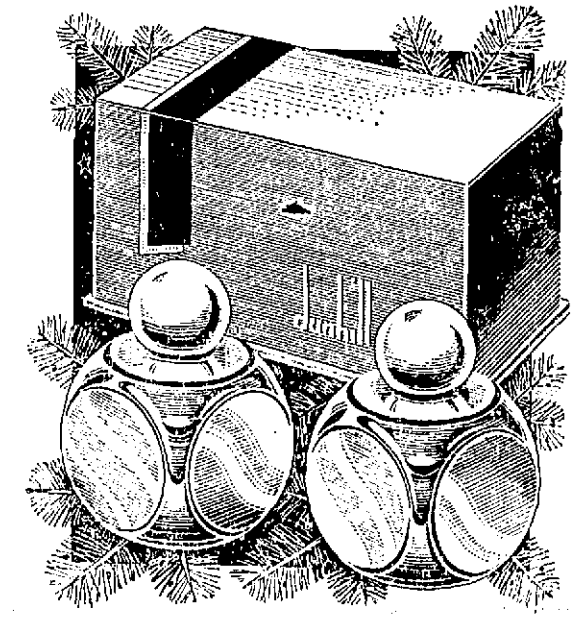

Platformate works to give extra mileage.

Cut-cracked gasoline works to give your engine smooth power.

Butane works for fast starts.

Pentane mix works to give you smooth warm-ups.

Gum preventive and anti-icer (added in cold weather) work to keep carburetors clean inside and to help check icing stalls.

DUNHILL'S SCULPTURED GOLD

His Prophecy Became His Epitaph

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy probably never meant to be his own prophet but he was when he explained eight years ago why he chose certain men in American history for his book, "Profiles in Courage."

His prophecy became his epitaph. "The courage of life," he said, long before he was considered for the presidency, "is often a less dramatic spectacle than the courage of a final moment; but it is no less a magnificent mixture of triumph and tragedy."

"A man does what he must—in spite of personal consequences, in spite of obstacles and dangers and pressures—and that is the basis of all human morality."

It took courage to push through crowds to shake hands or ride through a city with the top down. He knew the consequences might be assassination, and they were. But he felt what he did needed doing.

The deeper courage of his life, as with others before him, was in seeking the presidency and then trying to make good at it, with all that implies in effort.

He gave the presidency a youthful sense of life unmatched since the bouncing days of Theodore Roosevelt, if only because all the others in between were older when they took office.

President Johnson, 55, cannot be expected to spend himself as tirelessly, at least in a physical way, as Kennedy. His heart attack of 1955 makes it important not to get over-fatigued.

Kennedy brought more than courage and energy to the White House. Like Sir Winston Churchill, he had that indefinable thing called grace.

Churchill always had style but he developed grace late. Kennedy always had it, and it showed itself in his quiet humor, even at his own expense, and in his avoidance of political brawling.

At this moment, so close to his death and before the emotion over his assassination melts away, it is impossible to measure his place in history.

He was president less than three years or only five months longer than Harding, who was a misfit no matter how he is looked at. Kennedy, on the contrary, fitted into the presidency almost elegantly.

Yet, his less than three years

Business Eyes Focus on Budget

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Next to the tax cut bill now before the Senate the most pressing matter in the eyes of business are two budgets.

The current one on large parts of which the Congress is still debating.

The new one to start next July on which President Johnson and department heads are now laboring.

Both could see final economies from earlier estimates. But both could be affected, either for more or less spending, by the reaction, governmental and private, to President John F. Kennedy's death.

Many business firms and the economy in general—jobs, production schedules, sales, profits, personal income, the value of the dollar—will be affected whichever way the decision goes.

Johnson has pledged thrift and care in spending. The new budget now being hammered out for submission to Congress in January will show how much spending can be held down, or how much it will be expected to increase from built-in forces.

The current budget, for the fiscal year that started last July 1, is still in flux.

The Congress has cut some of the appropriations that had been asked by Kennedy. The House so far has trimmed an apparent $5.5 billion from presidential requests for $92 billion. But many of these cuts in authorization don't really curtail actual spending under past authorizations.

And some see a chance that Kennedy's death may encourage the Congress to restore some of his requests for such projects as foreign aid and space exploration.

The big question business is asking is what priorities Johnson will give to these and other of service were hardly more than a beginning, a foundation for what lay ahead since he seemed very likely to win a second term.

In that time, abroad, he had become a highly popular and respected figure. He had established better relations with the Soviet Union than had existed.

He won the confidence of most of Latin America.

His place in history may well depend upon the fact, if it proves to be a fact, that he broke the ice of the cold war. But it is too soon to do more than suggest that may be results of the work he did in his short time.

His domestic record is spotty. In his presidency the country became more prosperous and perhaps more self-confident particularly when he assured it the United States was ahead of the Soviet Union in long-range missiles.

But he bogged down badly with Congress. All through 1963 Congress just drifted, frustrating completely his request for a new civil rights law and a tax cut. Maybe it would have done better next year.

Maybe it would have done better this year if he had been harsher and tougher.

It didn't seem to be in his nature to be harsh and he appeared unwilling to be very tough except as a last resort, such as in making Premier Khrushchev take his missiles out of Cuba or using troops to stop Southern governors' defiance of federal court orders.

Ann Kenyon: Surgeon

By Adeline McElfresh

[Distributed by Newspaper Enterprise Assn. © 1968 Adeline McElfresh]

He plunged, as only Dr. Scottlin could when something was on his mind. "What's going on out there, Ann? A man named Howard Taylor telephoned a few minutes ago. Wanted to know if there was any truth to the rumor that you had lost your license to practice in New York. Is there anything I can do?"

"No. No more than I know you have."

"You're as bad as Taylor. He wouldn't talk either." Then, "The operator at the hospital said something about a public meeting, so I suppose you're at it now. Call me back when you can, Ann."

She promised and started back toward the auditorium wondering if Howard Taylor's call was good. It did mean he was interested, of course—and she had no doubt that Dr. Scottlin had put him straight in a hurry. But the stigma of a lost license, no matter how untrue, would linger and no matter what happened, there would always be some in Ledbie who might wonder—"You know, boys, Doc McDonnal can pick 'em!" a man remarked in a loud whisper as she passed.

"Shut up, Barney," someone warned.

Barney, Barney Homer, Peter had said. Ann turned. "Mr. Homer?"

"That's me, sugar," boldly. But his eyes were furtive.

"Would you like to say to my face the lies you have been telling behind my back?"

Somebody guffawed.

"You tell 'im, Doc!" another applauded vocally.

As he said quietly, "I just have."

The meeting had begun. Helen Ledbie was saying something or other about how gratifying it was "to see so much interest in the hospital my grandfather founded" as Ann returned to her place between Dr. Clyde and Dr. McDonnal, both of whom gave her questioning glances that couldn't be answered now.

Then Helen was saying, "Mr. Burrows—" and the man who had summoned Ann to the telephone rose. He was the school principal.

He had the way of a man accustomed to audiences. "When Miss Ledbie asked me to moderate this meeting, my friends, I quite frankly wondered if I was the right man. I still wonder. To me hospitals are such examples of medical miracles that I—"

"Are you sure you're talking about Ledbie Memorial?"

Space projects affect many business firms and whole communities. Expansion or curtailment of spending in this field would be top news for them—new orders, job security or payroll expansion.

Defense spending in general and various forms of welfare programs will touch many corporations, many cities and regions.

In the over-all picture, the total of Washington spending—above or below $100 billion?—will have a direct effect on the economy. The as yet unresolved questions: How much money will the government take out of the economy in taxes? How much will it pump into the economy in spending?

The deficit in the current fiscal year is estimated at $9 billion.
